

Bio - Gabriel Mascaro

Gabriel Mascaro is an artist whose work transits between the cinema and the contemporary visual arts, involving varied sorts using digital supports. He has graduated in Social Communication from the Federal University of Pernambuco, with qualification in Radio and Television. He has already directed music videos, fiction videos and documentaries. His current work evolves in the direction to build a hybrid project with dialogue between the documentary and the arts, performances, urban installations and interventions.